NEW YORK (Dow Jones)--Morgan Stanley hired Larry and Kevin Miller, William Murphy, Charles McAlpin and Laurence Diamond from Smith Barney last Friday.

They will work in the Chesterfield, Mo., office and report to the branch manager, Jason L. Turkin. Their combined fees and commissions over the past year were about $2.68 million and their prior assets were $311 million.

(STREET MOVES chronicles the migration of executives on Wall Street, with a particular emphasis on financial advisors with more than $1 million in annual production and who manage more than $100 million in client assets.)
